come with me

for i will tell you

like a friend

Allen County Public Library
900 Webster Street
PO Box 2270
Fort Wayne, IN 46801-2270

the splendid rasp of voices tin trinklets side upon distant words in overcoats my wintry barren rock warms harmonious the clasp

we know the season this yearbook is unique and progressive today's representation of tomorrow our university is moving into the future it is trying to expand to improve to breach the imbroglio of today's world we the staff of wesleyana feel this book is as contemporary as the times times broken by viet nam race riots a whirl-wind pace but times parallel with the goodness of God's world humor satisfaction and beauty—your year may be either or both remember it as such this book is different not a carbon copy of yesterday not to be thumbed through and read lightly but to be experimental indicative of what tomorrow may bring and deep in tone which will not be quickly found it is meant to be read re-read the year as seen through the eyes of you the student of illinois wesleyan university to obtain its full impact it cannot be regarded as just another yearbook take care not to use it as the reference manual of yesterday it must be discerned with scrutiny for its message lies not only in the written word but from the communication of the picture it sure is warm out there our year begins a hectic scramble renew acquaintances write checks the scramble over drudgery begins patterns set everything dying the mornings sure are cooler vacations ahead home vacations gone it sure is cold out there winds move in showers begin new life new spirit drudgery becomes anxiety it sure is getting warm out there to make another beginning at curing our ignorance to ponder and stride toward a true liberation we register in our narrow blood

we feel the times

gone inward

one must content for such a pivilege as keeping what remains sediments often rise to cloud cold waters lingering phrases enter a good angel's door where they are kept

as cures for ignorance

titans

we hear the groans of battle of play

we see the risk of the ball's shadow on the ground

pass the spectacle along listen to those who have thrown their laurels into the air calls the prophet of change toward us moves his helper baby you better not waste four years at this university or any other university learning how to make a living you better learn how to live —dick gregory what would happen to us without them a feverish world knowing its ills but finding no comfort in them when the young are educated in this task

spirits and bodies

rejoice together

we are the music makers and we are the makers of dreams wandering by the lone sea breakers and sitting by desolate streams —a. o'shaugnessy

when we look toward our futures our eyes are met by strange substance this is no book

who touches this touches a man

—walt whitman

the player the drummer clutch your sweet new lover the bodies of this generation keys toward the soul some people won't go for just getting by just hanging on or just taking it as it comes (maybe) they don't wait 'till later to find out what it really is all about (maybe) a few people enter the doors of decision-making it becomes part of their business (maybe) we owe them a debt and you too (maybe) and when long years and seasons wheeling brought around that point of time ordained for him to make his passage homeward trails and dangers

even so attended him

—homer

my dad he's a big man stands over me and tells me how it is how right the wayfarer who recognizes the abbey knowing the seed of solace kept in dusty manuscript how silly though this rodent gnawing at the leaves the melancholy days are come the saddest of the year of silent nights and amorous moods

and vistas brown and sear

—william c bryant

if to dream is to be insane for awhile you will no longer question the happiness of the insane the insane that is who are not evil for beware of the dream that turns into a nightmare —luigi pirandello

we are six characters in search of an author green and white our colors our seasons are green and white who asks us of our victory the game it's ours tonight the world of game is inhabited by men of real purpose

called together to act or watch as one how little do the fish resemble the sea

we conceive of roles in silence where the language of our tongues fails to reach having no need ornamental being could we but not give ear in times of cheer and battle years to music

we would not know how in the wilderness to live and grow

holding people in giving no choice finally in the evening we are brought within walls and yet the people take the double-standard talk consider rage making wings for some idea the monuments rise no visitor would imagine how the purposes vary of those within and the time we spend oh that time in the beginning is a literate man entering into the unknown the unexplored but you know how it is you did it here's what's happening you're new here its only a small campus in the center of the midwest some find it warm and others find it cold where are you who are you why are you here

it is sort of like being on stage the center of a performance thinking that you are doing the job but no one is clapping you're really alone
before you know it it is all in the past it was here today and was supposed to be tomorrow but now it is all yesterday i am no longer just literate but really educated i know about life i am now ready to take my position on God's green earth but not everything on God's green earth will last but you know how it is . . .
